SECURITY TO POLICY HOLDERS. THIS old and responsible Company insures against loss or damage by Fire, almost every description of property, and offers to Merchants and others desiring insurance, the security of an actual Capital of $6,298,800, for the whole of which, and for any liabilities beyond, the Shareholders are INDIVIDUALLY RESPONSIBLE, even to the extent of their entire fortunes. The Shareholders number about one thousand, and as a large portion of these are persons of great wealth, the most ample provisions exist for meeting every possible claim against the Company. SUBJECT TO THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES. In appointing an Agent for the United States, the Company has empowered him "to appear to and accept any action or legal proceedings insti-tuted against or by said Company, in the same manner as if the Company were a Corporation or Company established by the laws of the United States, or any of the several States."

PROVISION FOR PAYMENT OF LOSSES IN THE UNITED STATES. A SPECIAL PERMANENT FUND HAS BEEN PLACED AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE AGENT AT PHILADELPHIA, TO ENABLE KIM TO ADJUST AND PROMPTLY PAY ALL Losses, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO LONDON.

LIBERAL TO THE INSURED. The uniform course of the Company has always been a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule. During the past year, losses exceeding $525,000 were paid. Losses paid as soon as the amount is ascertained. ANNUAL INCOME. The Income of the Company is now about $1,- 000,000, increasing gradually each year, showing that it has the confidence of the different communities in which business is done.

RATE OF PREMIUM. The Rate of Premium will be moderate, and in all cases will be based upon the character of the owner or occupant, and the merits of the risk.

The conditions of Insurance are framed with the greatest liberality.

SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close. Thomas T. Hill, T. B. Robertson, R. H. Carter, Dr. R. H. Stabler, Wm. Wright, Christopher Neale, P. D. Lipscomb, R. F. Lester, Ben. MISCELLANEOUS READING.

COMMUNICATED. FOR COUSIN LU'S ALBUM. Dear Lu, 'tis not of "sparkling eyes," Nor "rosy cheeks" like "sunset skies," Nor "ruby lips," nor "forehead fair," Nor "heavy braids" of "raven hair," Nor "fairy hands" of "silver sheen," Nor "lightsome form" nor "graceful mien," Nor all the "gift of mind and heart," Which if thy being are a part, That I would sing in glowing rhyme, Were the rich gitts of Poesy mine. No! but to twine a wreath of beauty, Would be the Poer's only duty,

But since Dame Nature, our good mother, Gave not to me the Poet's power, And since in classic lore 'tis writ, "Poeta nascitur non fit," Therefore not being born a Poet, And now am "gue p" enough to show it, You must excuse dear cousin mine, This humble gift of my poor rhyme, Rememb'ring though the heart was willing, The tuneful mine, Refused to me, though fondly sneing,

A wreath of pure thoughts, kind and true,

Would be the gift for Cousin Lu.

Their aid divine. But what fond wishes can I trace, Which have not here each found a place, In gems of thought from friends most true, In wreaths of sunbeams twined "for Lu." Suffice to say, could wish from me, Purchase true happiness for thee, No being fair in earth or heaven,

Would be more blest than thee, my cousin. To-day, I leave Virginia's shore, For weeks, for months, perhaps no more, To view again her forests green, Or Rappahannock's lovely stream, But if no more on earth we meet, And I no more my cousin greet, O may we meet in heaven above, Where all is peace, and all is love, Still I've fond hopes of future meetings,

To clasp thy hand, dear Lu, in greetings. Forget not one, dear friend who goes, Far, far away, from those he loves,
Ah! yes I hope that Lu sometimes
Will think of him who penned these rhymes, And conning o'er her absent friends, Will name him e'er the list she ends, And now, dear friend, adieu! adieu!

And may God bless thee, cousin Lu! Ashland, May, 1860. A detailed account of the Great Fight, published in Bell's Life, tells us that the combatants struck each other with mawlers and bunches of fives upon the head, the nut, the cone, the conk, the cannister, the noddle, the mug, the knowledge box: the nose, the sneezer, the snorer, the snuffer, the snufftray, the nozzle, the mazzard; the eyes, the ogles, the optics, the peepers; the mouth, the kisser, the whistler, the oration-trap; drawing the blood, the claret, the ruby, the crim-Bell's Life in London, special edition, contains | son, the home-brewd, the gravy; and in sevea graphic account of this Extraordinary Fight, ral instances knocking the unfortunate knocker off his pins, his pegs, his stumps, and his foundation, to say nothing of boring, fibbing and sending him to grass .--Who wants the Belt?

> The model for the statue of Gen. Havelock has been completed, and is at the foundry where it is to be cast in bronze. The work is by Behnes, and is said to be in every way worthy of the artist's genius. The statue is to be placed in Trafalgar Square in August. Another statue by the same artist is to be erected in Sunderland, where Havelock was born.
